

N: You say that you did a mother cat and two kittens.

M: Uh huh, I send you the pictures of those.

N: OK. Was it the white Persian set, the big mother cat sitting and then one cat's on its back and the other one is sitting playing with it.

M: Yeah. Well, I never knew what the final outcome was in what color. I did see them in an antique shop at one time, and they were sort of grayish. And, uh, the owner of the shop said that it was from nineteen thirty-something. And I said, well come on now. I happen to know these, they are my pieces. (laughs) Nobody does something exactly like somebody else.
